FLOOR SHOW WITH LIVE MUSIC

The floor shows are accompanied by Polynesian musicians, drummers and an emcee. The shows are approximately 45–50 minutes in length and consist of songs and dances from French Polynesia (Tahiti), Hawaii, Samoa, and Aotearoa (New Zealand). Performers have many costume changes to reflect the different areas of Polynesia. There is an audience participation section where your guests become part of the show. The exciting fire knife dance of Samoa can also be added.

FLOOR SHOW WITH PRE-RECORDED MUSIC

These shows are accompanied by pre-recorded Polynesian music, live drumming and an emcee. The shows are approximately 35 minutes in length and consist of dances from the South Pacific, including costume changes and audience participation. A fire knife dancer can be added to this show.

PRE-RECORDED MUSIC / NO DRUMMERS

Shows are performed entirely to pre-recorded music with an emcee included. The shows are approximately 25–30 minutes in length and consist of dances from the South Pacific, including minimal costume changes and audience participation. A fire knife dancer cannot be added to this performance.
